CONFLICT OF INTEREST-RELATED SERVICES

It’s all about the overlap

The regulation of personal financial Conflict of interest (FCOI) has been the subject of increased scrutiny in the popular press and regulation by lawmakers and agencies. Institutions must be organized and responsive to authorities and regulators while not stifling the entrepreneurial relationships and activities that promote translation of new scientific knowledge into products and services available for the public benefit. C3Authority can help you understand what you need to do to be compliant with FCOI regulations and also how to do it effectively and efficiently. C3Authority can also assist you with consideration and implementation of policies and procedures related to the trending area of Institutional Conflict of Interest (ICOI).
